

IPO Diagram
Name: Dylan Goertz

Input	Process	Output
Amount of servings The original set constants for the recipe: 2 cups of tomato sauce, 1/3 cup of tomato paste (.333) , 2 cloves garlic , 1 tablespoon oregano and this makes 4 servings.	First set the constant variables for each ingredient of the recipe ask the user how many servings of the sauce they want to make make the formulas = ingredient * input of servings / 4 print results for each ingredient	The program is going to produce the amount of cups of tomato sauce, cups of tomato paste, cloves of garlic, and tablespoons of oregano needed for the amount of servings the user requests.